

Dave Kirby

Biography

David A. “Dave” Kirby, a 26 year resident of Herndon, is serving his fourth term on the Herndon Town Council. During his council service he has represented the town on the Virginia Municipal League’s (VML) Finance Policy, Transportation Policy and Community and Economic Development committees and has completed requirements for Virginia Elected Officials Leadership Academy Advanced Certified Local Government Official designation.

Kirby represents the town on the Northern Virginia Transportation Authority’s Planning Coordination Advisory Committee (PCAC); and is on the board of directors for the Committee for Dulles. In 2012, he received their Dave Edwards Community Service Award.

Kirby is the longtime commander of American Legion, Post 184. He also serves on the board of directors of the Herndon Hospitality Association; is a patron member of the Council for the Arts of Herndon; and is a member of Herndon’s Loyal Order of Moose. He is a 2002 graduate of the Herndon Citizen’s Police Academy and in 2006 he completed the ten-week Virginia Certified Planning Commissioners Program.

Kirby retired from the federal government in 2003 after 30 years of service as an information telecommunications officer.

Kirby holds an associates degree from the Coyne Electrical School and from the Cleveland Institute of Electronics. He served in the U.S. Air Force during the Vietnam War.

Kirby and his wife, Mary, have two sons, Daniel and Matthew. The Kirbys are active members of St. Joseph’s Catholic Church in Herndon.